

Invited Talk and Awareness Interaction on
'Gender Consciousness and Inclusivity'
Resource Person: Rituparna Neog
(Leading Queer Rights Activist of Assam, Poet, Story Teller & Development Sector Worker)
Venue: Near The Sal Trees (Playground II, J N College)
Date: November 12, 2022

An interactive session cum awareness programme on 'Gender Consciousness and Inclusivity' was organized under the aegis of Centre for Gender Studies and IQAC on November 12, 2022 as an initiative to spread awareness on existence of gender spectrum and different identities and how negotiations and heteronormative behaviour tend to thwart the revelation of different gender affiliation. The facilitator to this programme was Rituparna Neog, a leading Queer Rights Activist of Assam, poet, story teller & Development Sector Worker dedicated to this cause. The programme was intriguing and beautifully conducted by her through poetry recitation, anecdotes and invigorating interactive session actively participated by students and faculty.

The programme witnessed participation of students, faculty, NSS, NCC volunteers and cadets and Amrit Prabha Rangers, alumni, members from local women group, students from Gauhati university and interested participants from other areas of Assam.

Screenshot of the online meeting for organizing the event:

Meeting link: meet.google.com/exu-uexv-qhi

Snapshot taken during the event:

Boruah

Coordinator
Center for Gender Studies