

Visit to Institute of Advance Studies in Science and Technology (IASST), Guwahati on 27.02.2018

The Department of Zoology, J. N. College, Boko carried out a day long Advance Lab visit to Institute of Advance Studies in Science and Technology (IASST), Guwahati on 27.02.2018. A group of 13 Student of B Sc. 3rd semester, along with two faculty members Dr. Susanta Kumar Bhuyan and Dr. Rekha Chetry. This tour was carried out primarily with an objective of introducing students to advanced laboratories with sophisticated instruments. The students got the opportunity to observe various equipments. However the students were also able to get the basic knowledge about the research work carried out by the faculties in the field of Biological Science. The faculties and Research Scholars of IASST also demonstrated the working principle of the highly sophisticated instruments.

Group of Student with Teacher In-charge at IASST

Interactions with the Research Scholar in the IASST Laboratory