

Visit to Central Inland Fisheries Research Institute Barrackpore, West Bengal on 16.01.2019

The Department of Zoology conducted an Educational trip to Kolkata for B.Sc. 5th Semester Students from 15th to 21st January, 2019. During this trip various activities were conducted. On 16th January the students were taken to Central Inland Fisheries Research Institute Barrackpore, West Bengal, which is one of the premier Fishery Research Institute of India. The Scientist demonstrated different instruments related to fishery research in different laboratories. The Scientist of the Institute also delivered a Seminar lecture on Ongoing Research in Fishery Science for the students. The students interacted with the Scientist and Research Scholars of the Institute in various issues related to Fishery Science. In this programme a total of 15 Students having major in Zoology were participated under the supervision of three faculty members- Dr. Tapan Kumar Deka, Dr. Rekha Chetry and Miss Abantika Bhagabaty (Guest faculty).

