

Guest lecture on Tiger Conservation in India.

Date: 18.11.2019

Resource Person: Dr. Dipankar Lahkar

Manager,

Tiger Research & Conservation Division, Aaranyak

A Guest lecture on Tiger Conservation in India was conducted by Department of Zoology on 18th November, 2019. Dr. Dipankar Lahkar, Manager, Tiger Research & Conservation Division of Aaranyak was invited as Resource person. In his speech he mentioned about the present status of Tiger conservation in India with special reference to Northeast India. He discussed in details about habitat of Tiger, problems of conservation and methods of census. In this programme 73 students along with faculty members were present.

Resource person Dr. Dipankar Lahkar

Participants of the programme